Master Gardening Volunteer Opportunities

These are current MCMGA led community volunteer projects. You will periodically receive notice of other opportunities as they become available. Or, check with Amy regarding individual projects which may meet Purdue extension volunteer guidelines.

Courthouse Native Gardens – Coordinator Pam Roberts
 Help with planting, maintaining and labeling the native landscape at the Monroe County Courthouse.

MCMGA Education Committee – Coordinator Terri Vicenzi
 Volunteers help secure speakers for member and public gardening events.

MCMGA Membership Committee – Coordinator Pam Roberts
 Volunteers help develop programs and initiatives aimed at increasing and maintaining membership.

WonderGarden – Coordinator Nancy White
 Part of the WonderLab Museum, MCMGA volunteers design, maintain, and mentor community volunteer groups as they learn best gardening practices.

Important note: After membership is received, MCMGA will contact you in early 2021 with an on-line link for the required annual Purdue volunteer Agreement Form.
