To the extent not inconsistent with the law of the State of Indiana, every person (and the heirs and personal representatives of such person) who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation shall be indemnified by the Corporation against all liability and reasonable expense that may be incurred by such director or officer in connection with or resulting from any claim, action, suit or proceeding (a) if such director or officer is wholly successful with respect thereto or (b) if not wholly successful, then if such director or officer is determined to have acted in good faith, in what he or she reasonably believed to be the best interests of the Corporation and, in addition, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, is determined to have had no reasonable cause to believe that such conduct was unlawful. The termination of any claim, action, suit or proceeding, by judgment, settlement (whether with or without court approval), conviction, plea of guilty or plea of nolo contendere (or its equivalent) shall not create a presumption that a director or officer did not meet the standards of conduct set forth in this Section.

As used in this Section, the terms “claims, action, suit or proceeding” shall include any claim, action, suit or proceeding and all appeals thereof (whether brought by or in the right of this Corporation, any other corporation or otherwise), civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, or threat thereof, in which a director or officer of the Corporation (or his or her heirs and personal representative) may become or have been involved, as a party or otherwise: (a) by reason of being or having been a director or officer of the Corporation or of any corporation which he or she served as such at the request of the Corporation, or (b) by reason of acting or having acted in any capacity in a partnership, association, trust or other organization or entity in which he or she served as such at the request of the Corporation, or (c) by reason of any action taken or not taken in any such capacity, whether or not in such capacity at the time such liability or expense shall have been incurred.

As used in this Section, the terms “liability” and “expense” shall include, but shall not be limited to, counsel fees and disbursements and amounts of judgments, fines or penalties against, and amounts paid in settlement by or on behalf of, a director or officer.

As used in this Section, the term “wholly successful” shall mean (a) termination of any action, suit or proceeding against the person in question without any finding of liability or guilt against the person, (b) approval by a court, with knowledge of the indemnity herein provided, of a settlement of any action, suit or proceeding, or (c) the expiration of a reasonable period of time after the making of any claim or threat of an action, suit or proceeding without the institution of the same, without any payment or promise made to induce a settlement.

Every person claiming indemnification hereunder (other than one who has been wholly successful with respect to any claim, action, suit or proceeding) shall be entitled to indemnification (a) if independent legal counsel, which may be regular counsel of the Corporation or other disinterested person or persons, in either case selected by the Board of Directors, whether or not a disinterested quorum exists (such counsel or person or persons being hereinafter called the “referee”), shall deliver to the Corporation written findings that such director or officer has met the standards of conduct set forth therein, and (b) if the Board of Directors, acting upon such written finding, or otherwise so determines. The person claiming indemnification shall, if requested, appear before the referee and answer questions which the referee deems relevant and shall be given ample opportunity to present to the referee evidence relied upon for indemnification. The Corporation shall, at the request of the referee, make available facts, opinions or other evidence in any way relevant to the referee’s findings which are within the possession or control of the Corporation.

The rights of indemnification provided in this Section shall be in addition to any right to which any such director or officer may otherwise be entitled. Irrespective of the provisions of this Section, the Board of Directors may, at any time and from time to time, approve indemnification of directors, officers, employees or other persons to the full extent permitted by the law of the State of Indiana, whether on account of past or future transactions.

Expenses incurred with respect to any claim, action, suit or proceeding may be advanced by the Corporation by action of the Board of Directors, whether or not a disinterested quorum exists, prior to the final disposition thereof upon receipt of any undertaking by or on behalf of the recipient to repay such amount if not entitled to indemnification.
